

Save the Day – May 14, 2011

Chris Gribble Photo

2011 MIDWEST WOMEN'S SAILING CONFERENCE

Sponsored by Milwaukee Bay Women's Sailing Organization
Hosted at Milwaukee Community Sailing Center

Featured Speaker – Dawn Riley

Dawn Riley, currently leading the Oakcliff Sailing Center is one of the best-known sailors in the world. As CEO and captain of America True, Riley was the first woman to manage an America's Cup sailing team. She raced on four America's Cup and two Whitbread (now Volvo Ocean Race) teams. The former president of the Woman's Sports Foundation, she also serves on the board of US Sailing.

Exciting classes for beginning, intermediate and advanced sailors*

- Introduction to Sailing • Suddenly Singlehanded • Advanced Racing Tactics
- Use of Boat Electronics • First Aid Afloat • Weather Wisdom • Basic Rules of the Road • Basic Engine Maintenance (Diesel/Gas) • Boat Maintenance • Docking Techniques/Spring Lines • Advanced Sail Trim • Learning to Cruise • Dockside Rope Handling • Spinnaker Handling • Man Overboard and On-The-Water Safety
 - From the Dock to the Starting Line

Classes subject to change without notice*

Classes, continental breakfast and lunch included in registration fee, and a reception will follow the conference

For registration form and additional information — Email: womenssailingconf@gmail.com • Call: (414) 530-6528